FADI SALIM, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1) I am a Defendant in the above-captioned matter and make this Affidavit based on my own personal knowledge to demonstrate all actions taken by me and the Defendants King Distribution LLC and Xtra Smoke Shop LLC (collectively the “King Defendants”) to comply with the terms of Paragraph 4 of the June 22, 2018 Consent Preliminary Injunction (the “Consent Order”) entered in this matter.

2) In order to comply with Paragraph 2 of the Consent Order, the King Defendants have ceased from purchasing, selling, offering for sale, promoting, displaying, advertising, marketing, or otherwise disposing in any manner of “3X Product” as defined in Paragraph 1 of the Consent Order. Further, although the King Defendants were in no way involved in the design or creation of the allegedly infringing materials at issue in this case (they were provided to us by the Manufacturer), since entry of the Consent Order we have in no way sought to directly or indirectly adopt, use, register, or seek to register any trademark, service mark or other type of mark, material, company, business or domain name, or other name, that would cause a likelihood of confusion with, tarnish, dilute, cause blurring, lessen the significance or value of, or otherwise infringe upon Plaintiff Juul Labs, Inc.'s ("Juul") trademarks, trade dress or copyrights, as alleged in the Verified Complaint .

3) In order to comply with Paragraph 3 of the Consent Order, on or about May 24, 2018, the King Defendants delivered to our counsel, Mr. Golub's, office all responsive 3X Product in our possession, custody, or control, consisting of approximately 30 boxes of 3X Product (excluding, as per Paragraph 3 of the Consent Order, approximately 200 – 300 boxes of 3X Product that is the subject of ongoing negotiations between the Parties). Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true copy of the May 25, 2018 cover letter by which Mr. Golub, at the direction of counsel for Juul, delivered these boxes to Juul's counsel's office in Washington, DC, and the Federal Express delivery confirmation. Since service of the Consent Order on the resellers identified in Paragraph 8(c) of this Affidavit, several of those resellers have asked me to take back 3X Product that was previously sold to them. To date, I have taken back approximately 40 – 50 boxes, which I have stored in a King Distribution warehouse.

4) In order to comply with Paragraph 4 of the Consent Order, I submit this Affidavit on behalf of the King Defendants.

5) In order to comply with Paragraph 5 of the Consent Order, the King Defendants have preserved and maintained, and have not destroyed or deleted, all e-mails, other electronic information, documents, tangible evidence and other forms of information referring or in any way relating to the subject matter of this case. To date, no such information has been requested by the Plaintiff.

6) In order to comply with Paragraph 6 of the Consent Order, on May 22, 2018, Mr. Golub identified to counsel for Juul via e-mail the identity, address, and phone number of the manufacturer of all of the 3X Product that we ever obtained, KEEP VAPOR ELECTRONIC TECHNOLOGY CO., LIMITED, which is located in China (the “Manufacturer”). The King Defendants do not own the 3X name or products, and had nothing to do with the design of the 3X product or the design of the 3X packaging that are the subject of this lawsuit; both the product and the packaging designs were provided to us by the Manufacturer.

- 7) In order to comply with Paragraph 7 of the Consent Order:
 - (a) By e-mail on May 22, 2018, counsel for the King Defendants tendered to counsel for Juul six (6) different proposed redesigns of the 3X Product packaging that were prepared, at my request, by the Manufacturer, along with a request for draft disclaimer language that counsel for Juul had proposed be included on such packaging. A true copy of this e-mail and the proposed redesigns is attached as Exhibit B;
 - (b) By 4-page letter dated May 25, 2018, counsel for Juul detailed extensive feedback to the May 22nd proposed packaging designs, with requests for significant changes. In response, the King Defendants provided another significant re-design of the 3X Product packaging via e-mail on May 29, 2018, a true copy of which is attached as Exhibit C. This May 29th redesign was prepared, at my request, by the Manufacturer.
 - (c) By e-mail dated May 29, 2018, counsel for Juul requested additional images of the May 29th proposed packaging redesigns, including “head on” views of the front and back of the packaging, pictures of the pod itself, and the front and back of the proposed blister packs. The King Defendants responded via e-mail with additional images on May 30, 2018 and May 31, 2018, true copies of which are attached, respectively, as Exhibits D and E. These May 30th and May 31st images were prepared, at my request, by the Manufacturer.
 - (d) Juul responded to the May 30th and 31st images via e-mail on June 5, 2018, providing 8 specific requests to be implemented. The King Defendants responded via e-mail on June 7th with yet another significant redesign of the 3X Product packaging, a true copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit F. The June 7th redesign was prepared, at my request, by the Manufacturer.
 - (e) Juul did not respond to the June 7th redesign until June 19th, in which it identified 3 remaining issues, including 2 specific redesign requests. The King Defendants have already requested that the Manufacturer implement the 2 remaining redesign requests, and will provide same to Juul as soon as possible.

8) In order to comply with Paragraph 8 of the Consent Order, on or about May 25, 2018 the King Defendants provided a copy of the Consent Order to the following:

- (a) Employees – A copy of the Consent Order was delivered by hand to all employees: John Kalousie; Ahid Nasralla; and Marah Aldaboul.
- (b) Manufacturer – A copy of the Consent Order was delivered via e-mail to the Manufacturer. A true copy of the accompanying cover letter dated May 25, 2018 is annexed as Exhibit G.

All –

As discussed on our call today, attached please see the 6 additional new packaging designs for 3X products. As also discussed, Juul is interested in 3X including some disclaimer language on its packaging in order to further distinguish it from Juul. You agreed to provide draft disclaimer language, which I ask you to provide as soon as possible.

Nirav – Attached please see sample illustrations of the package redesigns my client has done based on the requests set forth in your letter of May 25, 2018. As you will see, significant changes have been made, including the following:

1. The pod image has been redesigned to eliminate the hexagonal, oval, and diamond shaped windows, and instead includes an upward pointing arrow shape that is clearly distinguishable from Juul's trademark illustration. The pod has further been redesigned to eliminate black as a color and is now blue and pink.
2. The general monochromatic look of Juul's design is nowhere to be found – the redesign incorporates white, black, blue, and pink.
3. The requested disclaimer of any association with Juul is now included at the bottom front of the package.
4. The source of the goods (King Distribution, LLC) is clearly identified at the very top of the back of the package.
5. All text and images are now centered on the front of the package.
6. The hexagonal cutout used to open the package has been eliminated.
7. The product dimensions have been completely revised to make it longer (Juul's 4.25" vs. 3X's 4.37" long), less wide (Juul's 2.5" vs. 3X's 2.08"), and less deep (Juul's 0.5" vs. 3X's 0.41").
8. The back of the inside blister pack has been revised to include clear 3X stamps across the entire pack.
9. The wording on the front and back of the package has been revised and reordered to distinguish it from Juul's wording; certain wording, such as ingredients and warnings are required.

My clients have advised that, once agreed upon, these design changes will be implemented across all 3X packaging, marketing, advertising, and promotion within their control.

Please review and let me know as soon as possible your client's position. Given the extensive changes, including the express disclaimer, the complete redesign, and the changes to the very dimensions of the packaging, it seems to me that there is no longer any likelihood of confusion with your client's products.

Let's plan on having a call at 4 pm to discuss where things stand, and whether we have made sufficient progress to jointly request an extension of the Consent Order, which expires today.

Thank you,
Alan

Monica -

In response to the below feedback provided on behalf of your client, please see the attached images showing all sides of the revised 3X packaging, and the 3X blister pack (front and back). Virtually all elements of the 3X packaging, both internal and external, have now been substantially revised top to bottom to address the issues and concerns raised by Juul.

As mentioned in my 6/5 e-mail to Nirav and Arnie, I would like to have a conference call among counsel to discuss the status of this matter and the next steps forward to amicable resolution.

I am available any time tomorrow (6/8) and have good availability on Monday (6/11). Please advise of a time that works for all counsel who need or wish to participate and I will circulate a call-in number.

Thank you for shipping online with FedEx ShipManager at fedex.com.

Please Note

FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1000, e.g., jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our Service Guide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits. Consult the applicable FedEx Service Guide for details.

The estimated shipping charge may be different than the actual charges for your shipment. Differences may occur based on actual weight, dimensions, and other factors. Consult the applicable FedEx Service Guide or the FedEx Rate Sheets for details on how shipping charges are calculated.
